

Volume 20, No. 2-3 (June-Sept. 1997)
Central European Studies

Presenting This Issue

Reviews and Evaluations of Articles

Suzanne Laba Cataldi, Ideas of Home and Truth in Central and Eastern European Thought

Articles

The Word as Ultimate Reality: The Christian dialogical personalism of Ferdinand Ebner
György Kunszt

The Harmonizing Influence of God in the Understanding of J.A. Comenius
Eduard Petru

Jan Patočka's World Movement as Ultimate
Aviezer Tucker

Theodore Karman, Paul Wigner, John Neumann, Leo Szilard, Edward Teller and Their Ideas of Ultimate Reality and Meaning
Tibor Horvath

Cyprian Norwid - The Poet of Truth
Ryszard Zajaczkowski

A Romanian Myth - Life as a Permanent Miracle
Mihaela Albu

Ultimate Reality and Meaning as Portrayed in the Religious Symbolism of Áron Tamási
Leslie A. Muray

Faith in God as Ultimate Strength: A Slovak physician who resisted 'brain washing'
Stefan Sencik

The Nature of the Reception of European Musical Phenomena as a Paradigm of the Genuineness of Serbian Music - System of Values and Artistic Horizons
Mirjana Veselinovic-Hofman

The Chaos-Cosmos Transformation Cycle with Special Reference to the Chernobyl Disaster: Toward the ultimate reality and meaning of the Ukraine
Andryi Girnyk, Vladimir Salamatov and Yury P Milov

Methods and Systematic Reflections

Epistemological Congruence between Scientific and Theological Logics in Polanyi's Thinking about Ultimate Reality and Meaning: A further contribution to URAM Polanyi Studies (URAM 9: 262-275; 10: 142-45)

Botond Gaál

Science as a Battlefield: Methodological and historical considerations on the misuse of science by totalitarian regimes of central Europe

Anton Hajduk